

Fermi Remembered - September 29, 2001

---

Stamp Ceremony 9:30-10:30 AM Cloister Club (Ida Noyes Hall)
President Randel, Roger Hildebrand and others

1st session 11:00-12:15 PM Max Palevsky Cinema

Introductory Session

Frank Wilczek	(30')	Fermi's Impact on 20th Century Physics
Murray Gell-Mann	(30')	No Shortage of Memories
Nina Byers	(15')	Fermi and Szilard

Light Lunch 12:15-1:30 PM Ida Noyes 3rd floor (by invitation only)

2nd Session 1:30-3:00 PM Max Palevsky Cinema

Remarks by Fermi's Colleagues

Richard Garwin	(20')	Working with Fermi at Chicago and post war Los Alamos
Marvin Goldberger	(30')	The Compleat Physicist
Roger Hildebrand	(10')	Fermi's Classrooms
Darragh Nagle	(20')	With Fermi at Columbia, Chicago, Los Alamos, and Chicago
Courtenay Wright	(10')	Fermi In Action

Coffee Break 3:00-3:30 PM Ida Noyes Library

Display of Fermi photos, manuscripts, and memorabilia.
Display of theses of contemporary students.

3rd Session 3:30-5:30 PM Max Palevsky Cinema

Remarks by students of the Fermi years:

Jerome Friedman	(15')	A student's view of Fermi.
George Farwell	(10')	Reminiscences
Maurice Glicksman	(15')	Enrico Fermi: Teacher, Colleague, Mentor
Uri Haber-Schaim	(10')	Fermi at Varenna, 1954
Jack Steinberger	(15')	Reminiscences
Al Wattenberg	(25')	Fermi as my Chauffer (Fermi at ANL and Chicago 1946-1949)
Lincoln Wolfenstein	(15')	Fermi and Weak Interactions
Gaurang Yodh	(10')	Reminiscences of Enrico Fermi

Reception 5:30-7:00 PM Ida Noyes Library

Displays as at coffee break

Dinner	7:00-8:30	Ida Noyes Cloister Club (by invitation only)
	8:30-9:00	After Dinner Remarks: Valentine Telegdi What made Fermi so special?
	9:00-9:30	Unsolicited remarks offered "on the spot"
	9:30	Closing remarks: J. W. Cronin